Re: United States v. Ramirez, 20 Cr. 22 (JMF).

Dear Judge Furman:

As newly-appointed counsel to Carlos Ramirez, I request that sentencing, currently scheduled for January 9, 2025, be adjourned to a date convenient for the Court in or after the middle of March. I have spoken with A.U.S.A. Timothy Ly, who joins this request.

Among other things, an adjournment is necessary because the Presentence Interview has not yet been done. I have spoken with P.O. Johnny Kim, and we are prepared to do the PSI on January 7th. We propose that the first disclosure of the Presentence Report be on or before January 27th and the final report due by February 24th.

I note that I have not yet finished reviewing the record. I do not anticipate any issues arising that would require additional briefing, but will make another application should that be necessary.

Thank you for your attention to this application.

Very truly yours,

/s/
